

Migratory Bird Program Webinar Series

Basic bird ID and leading bird walks with children

Scheduled Time: Tuesday, March 18th 2:00 – 3:30 PM (EST)

Presented By:

Alicia F King, USFWS National Urban Bird Treaty Coordinator

Description:

Want to learn the basics of bird id and how to lead a bird walk? This webinar will describe how to find and recognize birds. From an urban setting to a park or wildlife refuge, attendees will learn the basics of bird ID and how to find birds in their preferred habitats. Attendees will also learn the key elements to of basic bird id including the behavior, field marks, and calls and songs. We will also cover the basic tools of the trade and how to use them with a group on a field trip to watch birds and discover the top five tips for leading a birdwalk with children.

By the end of this webinar attendees will be able to:

- list the basics used to ID birds,
- identify basic habitats of common birds,
- recite the tools commonly used for leading a bird walk,
- recite the top five tips for leading a birdwalk with children.

To Register for the Webinar:

1. Go to: <https://doilearn.webex.com/>
2. Enter the webinar title in the search box
3. Scroll down to find your webinar
4. Click the Register button to the right
5. Enter your name, e-mail address and company
6. Click register

Once registered, you will receive an email from WebEx with instructions on how to join the webinar.

The views, opinions, or positions expressed in this webinar series are those of the guest presenter and do not necessarily reflect the views, opinions, or positions of the Department of Interior, U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service or NCTC.

Questions about webinar content:

Contact Rich Minnis, NCTC, 304-876-7208 (richard_minnis@fws.gov)

Trouble Registering:

Contact Marilyn Williams, NCTC, 304-876-7940 (marilyn_williams@fws.gov)

Captioning Services will be available for this webinar.